The sun comes up and the day begins. A little dog runs out to play. He jumps over the log and wags his tail. The cat sits on the wall and looks at the birds. The birds sing a happy song in the tall green tree.

A red fox walks by the pond. The fox sees a frog on a rock. The frog hops into the cool blue water. Splash goes the frog.

The dog barks and runs to the pond to see. Now all the little friends play by the water in the warm sun all day long.
